

Line/ Participation Dances

Please circle your favorite dances and return with the worksheet

Conga Line – It's time to turn up the heat and make your party Hot, Hot, Hot

Macarena– The dance that swept across America, first introduced to South Florida in 1994

Electric Slide– Easy as 1,2,3 this dance was born in Philadelphia and has become an all time favorite

Dollar Wine– An island favorite, which sings about putting four denominations of money in your pockets.

This dance is sure to get your hips swinging.

Hands Up– Club Med's own invention, which has become an island favorite, so put your hands up and give me your love!

Gin & Coconut Water– Another island dance where we praise the Sun, Sand and play the bongos as we dance.

Hand Jive– This is the dance from the movie and play that has been done since the 50's.

Saturday Night– This fast paced dance was discovered by our staff at a convention in Canada.

Redneck Girl– Calling all Cowgirls and Cowboys, this easy to learn dance will have you saying Yeehaw in no time.

Get Down Tonight– Back to the 70's with this follow along dance.

YMCA– Need we say more!?

Do The Dance– It's a new party dance written by a California DJ, who was looking for something to do that is as much fun as the Macarena.

Mambo #5- Put a little Latin Flare into your party and follow along.

Bus Stop– Still waiting to get groovy Baby? We brought this one back from the 70's.

Cha Cha Slide– The electric slide for the new Millennium. This time we're going get funky!
